LWV/P-D Voters Guide for Nov. 2014 Election

The League of Women Voters of St. Louis and the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, Stitoday.com and the Suburban Journals have again joined forces to provide a Voters Guide for the November 4th election. It will be published as an insert in the newspaper Oct. 24th. The Guide will also be available at www.lwvstl.org and www.stitoday.com at the League office by Oct. 22nd and at many locations in the area, including Schnucks, libraries, YWCAs, and Starbucks. More than 10,000 copies will be available throughout the community. Candidates were contacted from the six-county area and the City of St. Louis; responses from candidates and information on local and state-wide ballot issues are included in the Guide.

This successful effort of providing three voters guides -- for April, August and November elections -- has been possible because of the many League volunteers who have helped meet deadlines to provide a valuable community resource. The last step is the distribution of the 10,000 + copies. If you're available to help with this effort, email or call the office league@lwvstl.org or (314) 961-6869.

STATE WIDE - FOUR Constitutional Amendments on Nov. 4th Ballot simple majority required

#2 Missouri Evidence in Sexual Crimes Against Minors

Ballot language: "Shall the Missouri Constitution be amended so that it will be permissible to allow relevant evidence of prior criminal acts to be admissible in prosecutions for crimes of a sexual nature involving a victim under eighteen years of age? If more resources are needed to defend increased prosecutions additional costs to governmental entities could be at least $1.4 million annually, otherwise the fiscal impact is expected to be limited."

Fair ballot language (provided by the Secretary of State):

A "yes" vote will amend the Missouri Constitution to allow evidence of prior criminal acts, whether charged or uncharged, to be considered by courts in prosecutions of sexual crimes that involve a victim under 18 years of age. The amendment limits the use of such prior acts to support the victim's testimony or show that the person charged is more likely to commit the crime. Further the judge may exclude such prior acts if the value of considering them is substantially outweighed by the possibility of unfair prejudice to the person charged with committing the crime.

A "no" vote will not amend the constitution regarding the use of evidence of prior criminal acts to prosecute sexual crimes. If passed, this measure will have no impact on taxes.

Proponents say: This amendment would allow evidence that could determine whether someone is likely to be a repeat offender in sexual assaults or child molestation. In a 2008 poll, 98% of respondents believed that offenders will repeat. Evidence shows that the recidivism rate is 13% for incest, 24% for rapists.

Opponents say: We already have precedent that allows admission of such evidence in particular circumstances, particularly in sentencing hearings. The actual recidivism rate is much lower than the public believes, 13% for incest and 24% for rape.

3 Missouri Teacher Performance Evaluation

Ballot language: "Shall the Missouri Constitution be amended to

- Require teachers to be evaluated by a standards based performance evaluation system for which each local school district must receive state approval to continue receiving state and local funding;
- Require teachers to be dismissed, retained, demoted, promoted and paid primarily using quantifiable student performance data as part of the evaluation system;
- Require teachers to enter into contracts of three years or fewer with public school districts; and prohibit teachers from organizing or collectively bargaining regarding the design and implementation of the teacher evaluation system?"

FROM the Co-Presidents

Catherine Stenger approached a woman at the Urban League's Job Fair in Ferguson last month and asked her if she was registered to vote. The woman turned to the League table and said quietly: "People died so that I could vote. I never miss an election." Her statement, so simple and eloquent has guided our actions this fall. Nothing is so basic in our democracy as the right to vote. We are all equal in that act. One person, no matter how humble or powerful, one vote.

The League is working hard this fall to protect that right and expand the number of people in our community who think they have a reason to exercise it. We have the opportunity to select those who represent us in Congress and the state legislature. And there are four proposed Missouri constitutional amendments, three of which the League opposes: teacher evaluation based on student performance on standardized tests, limitation of the governor's budgetary powers, and a sham early voting measure.

It is only early October, but we have already distributed over 3,000 ballot issue information handouts. Our Speaker's Bureau has prepared League members with power points, research materials, and speaker training. The Voters Guide is in process, we are conducting candidate forums with record attendance, and we are holding more voter registration events than ever before.

These activities are second nature to us. But sometimes in the election season frenzy we forget how rare real political participation is these days. After a September 29th forum in St. Louis City's 15th Ward, one attendee wrote to us: "I just wanted to congratulate you for organizing such a terrific forum last evening for the aldermanic candidates in St. Louis' 15th Ward. It represented what democracy should be all about – engaged candidates, open discussion, politeness among the candidates and audience, and an engaged public. It's not easy to put that together. I truly respect what you and the League did."

Recent events in Ferguson have demonstrated how important it is to rebuild your democracy from the local level up. We are embarking on new initiatives this year to help our local communities build pipelines of committed citizens willing to serve in public office, educate newly registered voters about local and state government, and get out the vote.

Many in our community feel as if they don't have a stake in their democracy. We must persuade them that they do if we are to make a difference.

Leaguers be a part of the exciting fall election season

The November elections are right around the corner, and the League has been asked to coordinate and moderate several Candidate Forums. The League has a rich tradition of providing this non-partisan education service to the community. In order to continue this tradition, we need volunteers to serve as Moderators, Timers, and Card Collectors. Please check with Pat Jones for volunteer opportunities. You can contact her at: 314-807-8346 or email at PatJones@lwvstl.org

Thank you to all who have volunteered for previous Forums, and who are willing to help during this 2014 Fall Season.

State Amendments -- (cont. from p. 1)Fiscal impact:

Decisions by school districts regarding provisions allowed or required by this proposal and their implementation will influence the potential costs or savings impacting each district. Significant potential costs may be incurred by the state and/or the districts if new/additional evaluation instruments must be developed to satisfy the proposal's performance evaluation requirements.

Explanation: This constitutional amendment would mandate rules to be applied statewide concerning how teachers are evaluated, hired, paid, retained, promoted and dismissed.

- Local districts would have to use state-approved standards-based evaluation systems.
- Hiring, pay and retention would be based on student performance (standardized test scores).
- Teacher contracts would be limited to 3 years.
- No collective bargaining regarding teacher evaluations.

Proponents say: It will enable districts to evaluate teachers every 3 years. Poorly performing teachers can be removed; good ones kept. It protects collective bargaining for salary, benefits, and working conditions. It will improve quality of education.

Opponents say: It takes away local control. It mandates a one size fits all approach instead of treating students as individuals. It requires more standardized testing, leading to more "teaching to the test." It is more costly due to more tests. Current system allows for removal of poor teachers through regular monitoring and evaluation system.

6 Early Voting

Ballot language: "Shall the Missouri Constitution be amended to permit voting in person or by mail for a period of six business days prior to and including the Wednesday before the Election Day in all general elections but only if the legislature and the governor appropriate and disburse funds to pay for the increased costs of such voting? State governmental entities estimated startup costs of about $2 million and costs to reimburse local election authorities of at least $100,000 per election. Local election authorities estimated higher reimbursable costs per election. Those costs will depend on the compensation, staffing, and, planning decisions of election authorities with the total costs being unknown."

Fair ballot language (provided by the Secretary of State):

A "yes" vote will amend the Missouri Constitution to permit voters, in years when the legislature provides funding, an early voting period of six business days prior to and including the Wednesday before Election Day to cast a ballot in all general elections. This amendment does not allow early voting on Saturday or Sunday.

A "no" vote will not amend the Missouri Constitution to provide all voters with a six-business day early voting period. If passed, this measure will have no impact on taxes, but only if the legislature and the governor appropriate and disburse funds to pay for the increased costs of such voting.

Explanation: This constitutional amendment would set up rules for early voting in Missouri.

- Early voting may take place for six business days prior to the election (at boards of election offices during normal business hours only). No other locations may be used.

- Early voting is prohibited on weekends.
- Early voting may only take place if the legislature chooses to provide funds to pay for it.
- Absentee voting system will remain as is.

Proponents say:

Missouri is one of only 7 states in the nation that currently does not allow early voting in some form (we do allow absentee voting). This would put in place a reasonable early voting system. The rules for voting are uniform throughout the state. Funding remains under legislative control.

Opponents say:

This is not a real early voting system. There is no voting during the week prior to the election, no extended hours, and no voting on weekends. It is for 6 days only. The proposed system is more restrictive than 29 other states, including Iowa, Kansas, Illinois, and Arkansas. The legislature can eliminate early voting by refusing to fund it. Because this is a constitutional amendment, it will be very difficult to put a real early voting system in Missouri in the future.

#10 Missouri Gubernatorial Budgetary Recommendations

Ballot language: "Shall the Missouri Constitution be amended to require the governor to pay the public debt, to prohibit the governor from relying on revenue from legislation not yet passed when proposing a budget, and to provide a legislative check on the governor's decisions to restrict funding for education and other state services? State governmental entities expect no direct costs or savings. Local governmental entities expect an unknown fiscal impact."

Fair ballot language (provided by the Secretary of State):

A "yes" vote will amend the Missouri Constitution regarding the requirements placed on the governor for proposing a state budget and for withholding money appropriated in the budget passed by the legislature. This amendment prohibits the governor from reducing funding passed by the general assembly without receiving legislative consent, and provides certain other restrictions on the governor's ability to increase or decrease line items in the budget. This amendment further prohibits the governor from proposing a budget that relies on revenue from legislation that has not yet passed in the general assembly.

Explanation: This amendment places a number of limitations on the Governor's powers to propose a state budget and to allocate state funds without legislative consent.

- Governor cannot reduce or withhold funding passed by the legislature without legislative consent.
- Governor cannot change line items in the budget without legislative approval.
- Governor cannot use revenue in a budget proposal if the legislature to provide the revenue has not yet been passed by the legislature.

Proponents say: The governor should not have "unchecked power" to decide how money gets spent. Governor Nixon has withheld funding authorized by the legislature in the past. The legislature should control the budget.

Opponents say: The governor is responsible for a balanced budget. The current system works well. Governors in all states except Maryland have this power because it is necessary. Governor Nixon reduced line items when revenues were down and expenditures needed to be cut.
